"Seeing Around the Corner to Protect the Retail Industry"

DEFENSE DIVISION

Problem

Successful retailers reach millions of consumers and employ thousands of people. These successes make retailers an irresistible target for the plaintiffs' bar.

Solution

The new RLC Defense Division is working with Akin Gump and McGuireWoods to develop unique programs to help retail corporate counsel "see around the corner:"

- To identify vulnerabilities and practical solutions before litigation strikes and
- To provide a forum to minimize the impact of meritless demand letters and mass action litigation.

Opportunity

The best offense is a good defense! Join the RLC now to access new Defense Division tools and to strengthen the retail community network.
